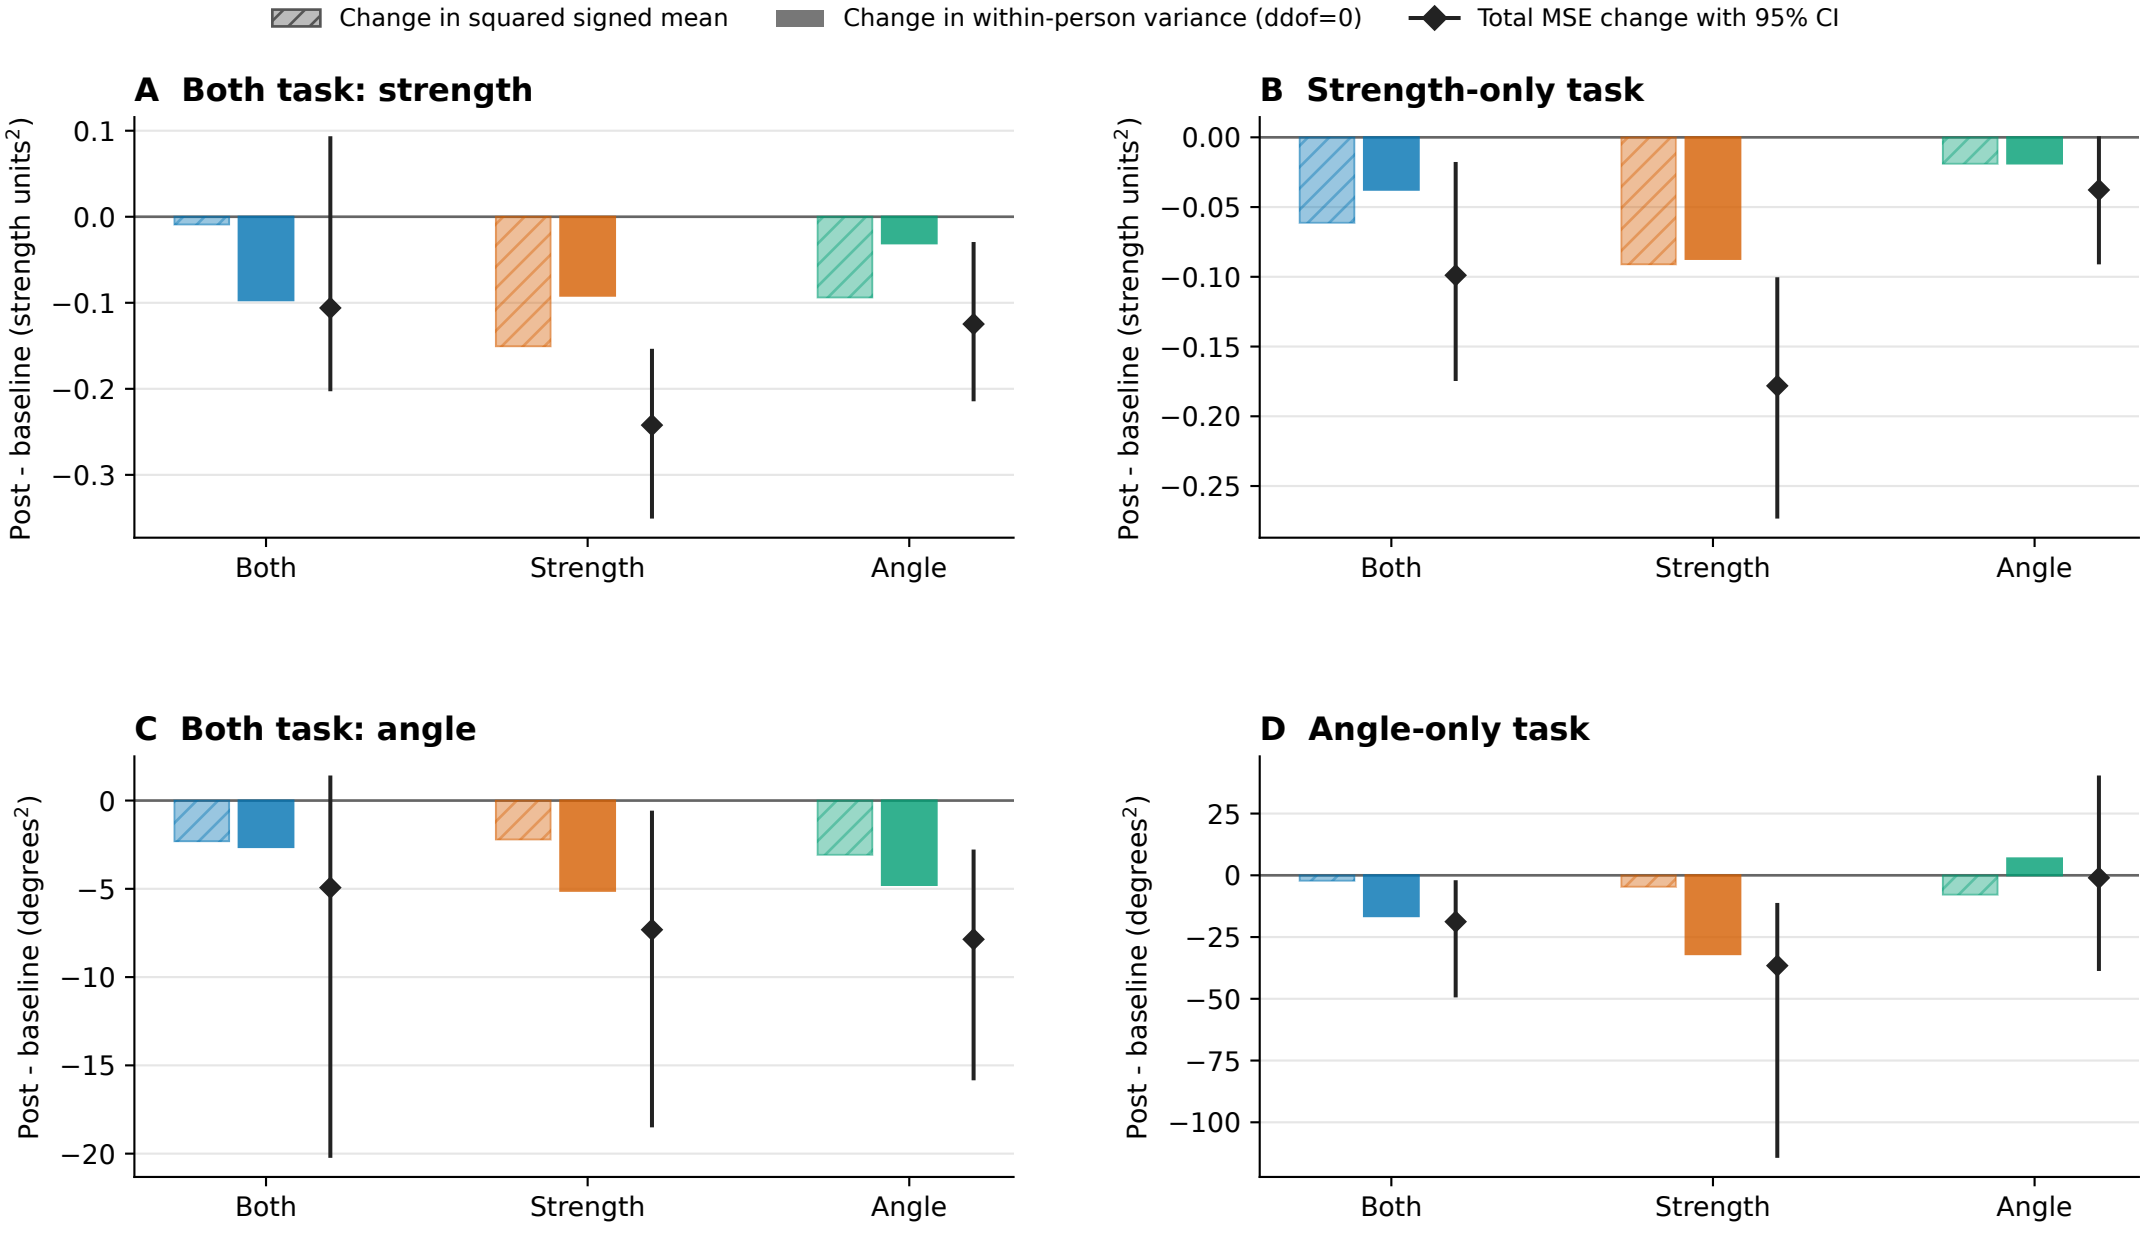
Separating observed bias and trial variability



MSE = squared signed mean + within-person variance. Bars sum to the diamond; negative values are reductions.
Panel scales differ. Observed scores, not latent motor noise. Finite-sample sensitivity estimates are in the table.